Pecky Cypress is a rare and highly prized wood. The unusual "pecky" pattern is caused by a fungus that attacks the heartwood of mature Cypress trees, creating an effect of pocketing and striation. When the Cypress timber is milled, the natural grooves and divots create a very unique and rustic look.

Because of the growing scarcity of Pecky Cypress, we developed a proprietary process that re-creates the rare pecky appearance consistently throughout each plank. E-Peck® is available in Cypress, Ponderosa Pine or Southern Pine boards.

Our handcrafted Synergy E-Peck® wood planks are tongue and groove, end matched and hand finished to deliver a premium and durable finish that is easy to install with significantly less waste.
